you fucking bastards just make me sick. ever since Lord Zartok seized control of the excog boards you sniveling cowards have not done one damn thing to stand up for yourselves. losers! even that rotten pervert "jay" is laying down and taking this brutal ass-fucking. you fuckers are worse than the french. and, yeah, i can see how strongly you hold your religious beliefs, alright. just let someone come in here and start pissing on you and you run away like a puppy with its tail between its legs. your silence is a testament to how shaky the foundation is upon which your beliefs in the god dog are situated. oh, and did i mention what total pussies you all are? the only fucking sound i have heard out of you is the occasional whimpering for the "coordinator" to come and set things straight. and even if that happens, he, she, or it will just delete the posts rather than engage the invaders.....

"Man is not what he should be. His life has neither meaning nor value if it is interpreted solely in terms of his present existence. He must look beyond; that he cannot do alone, however, for he is blind and his eyes must be opened. He must change his own being; in order to do so, he must pay the price, which is the sacrifice of the transient and illusory in order to gain the eternal and real. He must be born again; before there can be resurrection, though, there must be death. He must die to what he is in order to become what he might be.

I hate life

by Screwed, age - 16, female

August 06, 1999

Dear Diary,

I've always had friends who were really pretty, guys always ask them out and I'm just left there standing alone. I HATE IT! I'm starting to hate them too. All that they ever talk about are their boyfriends. It really annoys me. I've told them just to shut up and they do for about 5 minutes. I've also noticed that through it all my whole outlook on life had changed. I don't like to wake up in the morning because I always think that my day is going to be just as bad as the day before. I don't want to live anymore. I'm totally debating on suicide. I can't tell this to anyone I know. I just don't know what to do!!!!

Jealous & Confused

Friday, 25-Jun-1999 11:29:54 209.86.79.126 writes:

Why do men have to look at other women? I know my fiancee loves me, as I do him. But, sometimes he gets on the internet and looks up pics of nude women or women in bikini's. It makes me feel jealous, and he knows that. When I ask him why, he says "I don't know, I guess It's because I am a male." It also makes me feel ugly, like I'm not good enough for him to look at. When I tell him this he gets upset and says that I am the most beautiful woman he has ever met. I believe him. But, he still looks at those pics of other women. I don't understand why he has to look at them why he's got me. I know that I'm by no means the prettiest woman in the world, but I'm not ugly either. I'm grateful for any answers or advice you could e-mail me. Thank you, Zion

Husbands with low sex-drives

By Anonymous on Saturday, June 19, 1999 - 01:58 pm:

I'm so tired of hearing men complain that their wives cant/won't/don't put out. what about women who's husbands lack interest in sex. The only thing I ever wanted was to find someone to have lots of sex with and now I'm stuck in a marriage that is ok, but the sex is really lame. does anyone have any suggestions?

The death penalty. We don't have it, and it sucks. Martin Bryant killed over 30 people in a massacre at Port Arthur. How can anyone say he shouldn't be killed. He ruined so many lives and he gets to live in a nice little cell for the rest of his life, he gets three meals a day and lives better than alot poeple who aren't criminals. How is this fair?

Try This on for size

You argue for a god's existence because it could exist outside of spacetime. The problem with this is that it's not just a god exists / god doesn't exist binary state. If one improbable thing can exist outside of spacetime, then an infinite number of improbable things exist. So what is your rationale in picking one which sounds like a nice benefactor to humanity (and humanity only it seems) and calling it the one and only supreme being?

If my wife were to call the shot, I will probably end up being a Catholic priest. She is too passive to think sex is necessary at all. She would rather go out shopping or meet her friends to discuss religion than having sex. Perhaps, she is frigid, because she needs too much foreplay to get into the mood. She also said that too much sex could cause blindness. I doubt it.

PRAYERS FOR RAIN

Posted by DJ on May 09, 1999 at 10:37:39:

TO ALL BELIEVERS:

Let's all join in faith and pray for sufficient rain this year and no fires for Palm Coast-- and ALL areas. Remember Elijah's prayers about rain (James 5:17-18)? And Elijah was a "regular guy" just like we are. Now also remember 1 John 5:14-15 (the confidence that God will grant what we ask according to His will). Keep praying, keep the faith, and God bless.

Why all the violence?

by Izzy, age - 16, female

April 30, 1999

Dear Diary,

I didn't really realize it, but it scares me to think about what happened in Littleton, Colorado. I mean all I hear is about this tragedy, but I'm so scared and all I can think about is: will it happen to me? I watch all of those talk shows that talk to the families of the dead children and I cry my eyes out. Why do people kill? Why did everyone ignore the signs of this? How could anyone think to do this? It scares me so much. Everyone probably thinks I'm crazy to feel this way, but I can't help it. I'm scared. When the time does come and someone comes into my school with a bomb, what am I going to do? How am I going to react? Diary, why is our world like this? Why can't people understand that they can't solve their problems with violence? Innocent people were killed. It was so unfair for these kids to die. They had barely started their lives. It's not fair. I say a prayer for everyone hurt, emotionally and physically, in the shooting every night. I hope everyone who reads this does too.

Please God, watch over all of us. Make sure psychos like that stay out of our school.
