I feel so down

Name: Amy E-Mail: n1nitram@hotmail.com Date/Time: 9/8/2001 4:26 PM

I feel so lost in this vast world. I wish I was dead. I know that nobody would miss me - well they might for the first week, but after that, there are enough other people in their lives for them to forget about me. I've been suffering from (what I think is) depression for over 2 years now. I haven't told my parent's anything. You would think they would notice right? Well they haven't, and they have no idea what I've been going through for those few years. When I get really down I turn to smoking and cutting my wrists in a way to control my anger and hatred for the world - but now I'm addicted to smoking, and know that cutting my wrists is nothing anymore because the rush of adrenaline and pain doesn't release anywhere near as much anger and upset as it used to.continued

Someone please help me!!

Controlling your dreams:

Posted by dreamweaver on 8/27/2001, 2:14 am

While trying to be aware of your dream state and by recognizing during any dream that you are indeed dreaming, then you will gradually learn to feel safe in knowing there is no limits in that state as in real life . By involving your awareness of the state you're in, you can learn to control the action or activity in your dream, as well as the paths and makeup of the scenarios you conjure up. To master these tricks you have to train yourself to recognize and consciously admit to yourself that you are dreaming and that you can do anything you wish with no consequences in that dream. When you master this you will be able to go places and do things, like fly, feel love, feel sex, release stress and tensions, feel belonging or a sense of presence while feeling strong by conquering fears, frustrations, and inhibitions etc.

Just catching up on info. Carol, thank you for your post. You must be a different person than Carolyn who has posted. Pete and Jane, how goes it. Dusty, has your mother-in-law taken a direction on smoking since she began to try it again after being off a long time? What does she think of your wife smoking?

muslims suck

Posted By: blargiss () on 10 Aug 2001 at 8:05:55 AM

: Muslims are uncivilised, stinky ferocious ppl who should be erased from the earth as they make it a shitty place to live in. You know, scientists did a test and found that muslims are more inclined to resort to violence than any other race. just chill guys. israel is the jews' land. you muslims have such crap armies that you'll never in a million years reclaim "your" land. remember the 7 day war. fuck man. 5 arab countries could not defeat israel. why? because we have g-d with us and allah is some fiction character made up by mohammed. look at the world and take a look where the jews are and where the arabs are. sending your children into battle. "Holy War". you suck. poofs.

After the Y2K fiasco we left earth to work on new takeover plans, and now have formulated a new one. This time, we have enlisted the aid of the Pope, and a peculiar man from San Fransisco named Reggie. The Pope and Reggie shall star on a major network TV mini-series called "The Pope and Reggie learn about manhood" This show shall broadcast hypnotic mind control sounds, and we WILL take over America with it!!

I am nothing in comparison to myself.

Having the benefit of the gift of gab (and looks) of my mother and the intelligence (and self-esteem issues) of my father, I find that I am in my own special brand of hell. That of such a curse...Knowing what I want when I want it. It boggles my mind that some people dont know. But acceptance and love (of all things) has made me realize some things. You (as in those that are around me in the Navy) are dumb enough to believe everything that comes out of my mouth. Like Chaz...he probably takes everything i say literally...same with Suzane...they are only words...kind of like "I love you" can only be words...I love my mother...and you can take that to the bank...but I would never trust her enough to give her my car keys. I dont know what exactly you all think of me...but in my opinion, I think that since I made this discussion board, it has done nothing but exploit my weaknesses. I have tasted it all...the west the east...I have #####ed them fat and skinny...And the only reason i would want someone else in my life is for god..vis a vis...my proginey...misspelled i am sure like many of these drunken words. my family name dies with me...but For Me...i could care less about reproduction...i just want someone who kisses well...but get these insane notions out of your head people! I am in now better than you...no matter what i claim to be...you all have a lesson to learn in taking somebody's word for it...

New high IQ society (for rich people ONLY)
Posted by Paul O on 6/22/2001, 11:42 am 64.229.140.216

I have started a new society exclusively for hyper bright decamillionaires. If you wish to join this society you must demonstrate an IQ of at least 145 (sigma 15) on a supervised test, and a net worth of at least $10 million. The IQ requirement is to ensure a stimulating level of discourse. The financial requirement is to ensure that your opinions have credibility, and to keep things civilized.

If you are interested in joining my smart and rich society, email me at discussion62@hotmail.com. Cheers!

What did you marry him for? Did he act like that when you were dating? If you ask me, it sounds like he's losing interest in you. You know things are bad if he doesn't have sex with you even after you beg. Most guys (well, mine at least) would love their women begging for sex. Talk to him about your need for attention. Hopefully he cares enough to listen

Sadly must report another Militia Casualty!

From: Generalissimo and President For Life Mark Shotzberger Date: 05/28/01 Time: 12:48

It is with great regret that I announce the death of Lt. Bobby-Joe Ronald Reagan John Birch Ramma-Langa-Ding-Dong Johnson, Jr.

Bobby Joe, or as his dad called him "Hey Stupid!", was 42 years old and lived with his parents. Bobby-Joe earned his living by catching chickens for Purdue Farms, scalping tickets to the NASCAR Races, stealing telephone cable to sell the copper for scrap and picking up aluminum cans along the road.

Bobby-Joe lived at the "Happy In-Breed" trailer park with his mother Jennie-Sue who was also his first cousin and his grandmother, his father Bobby Joe, III, his great grandmother Cletus, his sister Paulene a.k.a. "the fifty cent piece".

He is also survived by six illegitimate children, four legitimate children (two by his mother and two by his sister), sixty four cats, eighty-two dogs, five pigs, 18 chickens and fifteen cars on blocks in the front yard.

He died after accidentally shooting himself with his Colt .45 after drinking twelve Colt .45's. Attempts to call 911 to save his life were rejected by Bobby-Joe, as he did not want any Tax-Supported Wage slaves to touch him! His last words were "I'd rather die bleeding to death in a free market society, than live in any nation with socialized medicine!"

Bobby Joe was buried in a cardboard box made from some Coors-Lite 12 pack boxes, with full Militia Honors! After the ceremonies, His sister offered to entertain all 120 militia members in attendance.

Sex in Space

Check out this article about a future space hotel for couples:

Do you think it would be fun to have sex in space or do you think the feeling of weightlessness would just impair the grinding?

Hmmm.. Good question.. Never really gave it much thought myself.. But I will say that I bet you can get into some real "interesting" positions.. HEHEHEEEEE..

The Journey From Pain To Healing

Raven 1264 5/6/2001 4:06 PM

Hi everyone, :)

First of all, thank you for venturing into this website. We have experienced pain, anxiety and despair in one form or another. We have felt the lack of hope and darkness. This website enables all of us young or old to come together with one important key that helps us overcome obstacles that may plague or cripple our vision of life. They are called, "TOOLS."

Let me start by saying, "You are NOT alone." This website allows you to find purpose and strength from within side yourself. The TOOLS that are given are from people who truly CARE about you and your own destiny. Remember utilizing these tools will help you move forward towards the light. It is not a quick-fix, however it is a process that works. I'm living proof that it helps. :)

violence

Margaret Temple - Friday, 04/20/01, 7:09:23am (#16658 of 16677)

Where do you get off with the comment "dumping your kids at daycare". That happens to be a necessity for many mothers quite often so they and their children can survive. I would need "aggressive" defined for me before I would listen to this study. There is nothing wrong with some little girls for instance learning to be a little more "aggressive". Maybe they won't wind up like Nicole Simpson with a little more aggression programmed into them from an earlier age.

It's just another example, like women losing custody of their children after divorce, of men attempting to roll back the rights we have won in the last 30 years. I, quite frankly, am sick of it.

18 months later

Posted by Linda on 3/27/2001, 12:39 pm 216.86.161.23

My life went down the tubes in 1999. My husband awoke one January morning and told me that 'he had nothing left to give me, I had taken it all' and slammed the door in my face. In early Feb. my only sibling died while on dialysis and my husband would not accompany me to New York for the wake/funeral. When I returned I asked him why he did not go with me and his reply was after sticking his face right in mine "because I never liked him". After months of putting up with his cruelty I found myself a boyfriend and left. Only then did my husband admit that he now realized how much he loved me and wanted me back. I did attempt a reconciliation but my husband was still Jeckyll and Hyde. Our marriage was a good one and I loved that man more then you can imagine. I did not know what I had done to deserve his cruel treatment and will never know as he himself tells me he does not know. We were married for 26 years.

I am over him, have another relationship going but of course refuse to give of myself as I am so afraid of being hurt. I could not bear that pain again. I just couldn't.....

"Shocking news"

junglegal 02:56 PM (GMT)

In a stunning news conference Burnadette Peters, Broadway diva and former star of the hit show "Annie Get Your Gun," has revealed her real identity: SHE'S A MAN!!! True to her Queens upbringing, she blurted out, "Wouldn't you like to see Burnadette's peter? Just step back!" In an additional quip, she added, "Rosie O'Donnell can stop lusting after my fabulous body, because, honey, she'd be blown away." O'Donnell, while not available for comment, was reportedly shaken and in tears over the news that took Broadway like a firestorm.

Church and state

Dave Resnick3 - Sunday, 02/04/01, 1:54:23pm (#12515 of 12522)

Anne Dumka 2/4/01 6:16am But, if there were no compromise, and your side won, people like me would be burning at the stake, just like in the good old days.

How DARE you! You ask me my position on the First Amendment, I state that I support it exactly as it's written, and you retort with this trash!

Jesus Christ said love your enemy, not burn them at the stake!

Many evil people have done horrendous things while calling themselves "Chrstitians" and otherwise hiding behind a religious mask for either protection, justification, or both.

That you're unable to discern the difference between those who talk the talk and those who walk the walk undermines your own credibility, not mine.

The middle ground I spoke of involved the First Amendment, a secular provision for ensuring religious freedom, not, as you falsely attribute, a mandated national doctrine.

Good day!

"looking for my long lost love"

Posted by Zeke on Jan-24-01 at 09:02 AM (EST)

My name is Zak, I used to be together with Lily (now known as Moira), thus I used to be known as the Zak of "Zak and Lily". We lived in Thailand in the mid and latter half of the 80's.

I am looking for a New Zealander called Trust, who was once together with another New Zealander called Gideon ("Gideon and Trust") - they were also living in Thailand at the time, and involved in the Burma area.

I am looking for any tips and information on Trust's whereabouts, her new name, anything!

Trust: You were the love of my life! I am sure that God brought us together. We were separated from each other in such a horrible way. I have not forgotten you!

FreeMe ... "Stalked by boss..."

Jan-11-01, 04:52 PM (GMT)

I just recently quit my job of only 3 weeks due to unwanted passes by my boss... It started the first day of my hiring... He would touch me and tell me how pretty I was... I would tell him to stop and that I was uninterested in him and that I was married... The situation at my job didn't help... It was only the two of us alone in the evenings and hardly anyone came in... The more I resisted the more he did... He calls every day and asks when he will see me and that he misses me... I have a dozen of letters he'd written... Flowers and God knows what else... I should have known he was odd but I thought he was being nice... Everyone who worked there were family members... The others that did work there suddenly quit... I'm happily married and afraid my husband will find out even though I haven't done or provoked any of this... My husband is way over protective and very jealous... I don't want this to ruin our marriage! I just can't go on like this... He told me the only way he'd leave me alone is if I were to sleep with him... HELP!!!!
