Have a look at some world history, then add up the amount of people that have died through your disgusting religion you freak. Then learn a little about science, then maybe, you ignorant twat, you might realise that we were not put here by so omnipotent being, but through a gradual sequence of events known as evolution. There is not a shred of evidence to support creationism, yet the evidence to support evolution is massive. Your ignorance (I do not mean that offensively, it is a term implying your lack of awareness), is astounding. The gap between what you know, and what you want to believe, you call god. You are so scared of the real world and what it contains, that you fill the void that you dare not fill with knowledge, with religion. America calls itself a 'superpower', yet to the rest of us you are all a joke, your ignorance of the real world is one of the many reasons that we see you all as quite pathetic. Welcome to the real world, you may deny it as you wish, however it is here. IP: 212.188.154.163

I think its very appropriate that Ellis post messages about jesus on Jerry's site. I guess my interpretation of the show is unusual, but I find the statements Jerry makes very spiritual in content. For eg. , just yesterday, it was an old episode on 'personal add nightmares', Jerrys' final comment: its not how you meet people, its what you do after you meet them.

Well, try getting that right, and if more pople did, there wouldnt be so many problems in the world. The whole of religion, whatever religion it may be, is to find ways for poeple to get on 'after they meet', they ususaly reccommentd things like 'love thy nmeighbour', compassion, love, selflessness, community values, courage, and so on.

Anyway, that was just a thought. 🤔

Is I love Steve a Male or Female?
Just want to make sure I properly address the Idiot !
First of all I don't believe "ELLIS" forced you to read her post about Jesus. So how could she be forcing anything down anyones throat?
I'm curious?
What would give you the Idea that Steve would want somebody like you with your trashy mouth? Do you eat from the same mouth you talk out of? Steve see's and hears that garbage everyday, why would he want someone like you?
Get over yourself !!

Laughing my ass off in the Great NorthWest !!!!
