I like his final comments, do you think he learned them at Sunday school, or is that the sort of thing you read in the torah? IP: 203.23.237.80

I really don't understand why I have people saying to me to calm down because I never told to anyone who doesn't think like me that they were stupid or brain dead like the dear Ellis is doing all over this site which is probably not the only place where she does it so you should all back off of me for one second and think about it!!!

Well excuse me but I won't talk nice with someone who calls people who don't believe in Jesus brain dead because I happen to be one of them and even if I would believe in him I would NEVER force myself on them or call them names or beat them up!

Hey... I love steve...

Just because you don't believe in jesus, it doesn't mean you get to be an ass.

You don't believe in Jesus... LAAAAAAAAAAA DEEEEEEEEEEE FRICKEN DAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!!!!

True... Ellis shouldn't judge... but her wrong doesn't give you the right to call her a bitch.

Hey! Two wrongs don't make a right! WE LEARNED THAT IN GRADE SCHOOL!

I don't give a rat's ass if you or anybody believe in Jesus or whatever but DON'T JUDGE!!! That's only what I am saying! And if you think that she was wrong but it didn't gave me the right to call her a bitch why are you calling me an ass then?!

I am not calling you an ass... I said you are acting like an ass.

Here is an example:

If I jump around and hoot and beat my chest and pick flease off the back of other people, I am acting like a monkey. I am, however, NOT a monkey.

If someone calls another a name for expressing their opinion, they are acting like an ass. They, however, may not be an ass.

There is a difference.

Again, Please stop acting like an ass...
