So now I need some professional help and my IQ is low??? What the hell is wrong with you??? I called her names because she called me names (Don't tell me that she didn't wrote my name! She said that everyone who doesn't believe in her God were brain dead and I happen to be one of them!) maybe that sounds immature but she deserved it! You can't go around calling some people names and don't expect to be called names in return! It's like if someone would slap me I would slap him/her back! It just self-defense! I never hurt mentally and physically someone just for the fun of it! So why don't you just get the fuck out of my back! I can't believe I have idiots on my back like that in here! I wrote comments in a lot of post in the other shows in that website and nobody spoke to me like that! That's the first time I have ever experienced that kind of things and I go to a lot of Message Boards and Chats! In one of them it can get really violent but you my friend are the worst asshole I have ever came across over the internet!

Please don't get me wrong Stevie Lover, I am not attacking you because of your belief or your right to defend other athiests/agnostics... but after trying to have a Semi-intelligent conversation with you. I got the impression that your not a very logical person and need to resort to name calling and the "FUCK" word to get your point across.

That is not the sign of a intelligent person. It is the sign of an ass/fool/moron.

AGAIN: You ae not an ass because of what you believe, or because you are defending hose beliefs, its how you go about the whole thing... Spouting "BITCH" and "FUCK" and "ASSHOLE" make you seem sophomoric and unintelligent.

And what are my beliefs exactely? Because I never talked about them I only said that I don't believe in Jesus. And you should re-read the first thing you said to me because this is very far away from being a attempt for a intelligent conversation!

Okay just to be sure which one is your first comment towards me because you seem to have two different IP numbers. It doesn't change the fact that nobody has the right to jump on my back for what I wrote to Ellis. I was only stating my opinion. If you want to I can give you some address where I am having intelligent conversation and intelligent arguments without cussing. I rarely result to that kind of language. And anyway those are just words.

Oh and one more thing (I am very tired)...If you are so against name calling and the kind of language I used for that topic is that mean that if someone would be in front of you calling you all sorts of name you would let her/him do it? Would you try to calm her/him down? If you try this and he/she is still insulting you would you get angry? I know you could walk away but if you can't and that the person is really mean are you going to cusse and insult this person? Just wanna know! Well, well, well it looks like I can write something without using foul language after all. Surprised?

Wow I Love Steve. You sure showed him. ~smirk~ No one forced you to read the initial message anyway. If you don't want to hear about Jesus, don't read it. Personally I think you were looking for an argument. Thus, you were acting like an ass. Now, be a dear and admit to your wrong-doing. Thaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaanks my good friend.

P.S. If you're offended by this, please scroll up and use previous messages as posted by the various "Steve" identities as reference.

(Now I have three IP'S! I work and have a few different computers)

Well you have toned down your responses so you must see that your prior posts were a little dumb...

Would I defend a name calling? If some one calls me a name... I ignore it... especially on the computer. I just go to the next message. That way I won't type "What the FUCK! YOUR A BITCH!" and seem like a baby. If I was walking down the street and someone called me a name? Walk away... not worth the time.

And I did read Ellis' post. She didn't say " I LOVE STEVE WILL BURN IN HELL!" She was making a generalization. If youn were secure in your beleif system, you wouldn't have let her post bother you. I on the other hand am pointing out your dumb posts because I have nothing better to do at work.

You need to read, CAREFULLY, prior posts before responding. It makes you seem easily excitable and stupid.

P.S. If you are tired, take a nap.

This post is entitled:

"Why 'I Love Steve' is an idiot"

OR

"Ode to a Dumbass"

I will be quoting I Love steve in this response, her quotes will be marked with this face  ...

 "WHAT THE FUCK?!? This bitch is everywhere posting this shit!!! HEY BITCH you do not have the right to force yourself like that on everyone and to insult or beat up the ones who don't act and think like you!!!

But if they don't think and act like I LOVE STEVE its OK to be intolerant...

 "God love and accept EVERYBODY so STOP judging because your God does not!!!! AND SHUT THE FUCK UP!!!!"

FANTASTIC!!!

 "I am just sick and tired of those Christians Jerks. And if this kind of language is bottering you just what are you doing here exactly? This a Message Board about the Jerry Springer Show Idiot!"

If you are going to call someone an idiot, at least try to use proper spelling and punctuation...

 "I really don't understand why I have people saying to me to calm down because I never told to anyone who doesn't think like me that they were stupid or brain dead like the dear Ellis is doing all over this site..."

🤪 "HEY BITCH you do not have the right to force yourself like that on everyone and to insult or beat up the ones who don't act and think like you!!!"

Someone is confused... I think its me...

🤪 "And what are my beliefs exactly? Because I never talked about them I only said that I don't believe in Jesus."

Isn't that a beleif?? I am SO confused... my... head... hurts...

🤪 "Well, well, well it looks like I can write something without using foul language after all. Surprised?"

astounded.

I need a nap now...
